TO-NIGHT'S BATTLE.

Fast and Scientific Work Promised at the Abbott-Pearce Contest-In-terest in the Wanko-Carle "Prelim" at Fever Heat-Referce George Siler Entertained.

No dyed-in-the-wool lover of good boxing will be marked absent when the roll is called at the Metropolitan club to-night, for the indications point to a hanner attendance. There ought to be a jam, for the club's enterprise deserves it from all points of view. Doubtless two netter men at the weight do not exist than Leslie Pearce and Stanton Abbott. They are booked for twenty-five rounds to a decision, and if the limit is reached George Siler, of Chica-go, will make a decision,

The club is incurring great expense in securing Siler's services, and has brought him here from Chicago for tonight's entertainment. Siler made his night's entertainment. Siler made his name at Carson Citr, when he countered the fatal ten that sent Jim Corbet's pompadour into the row of back numbers, and he has since officiated at all the big lights in the west. He was a fair boxer in earlier years, and few lightweights could put it over him. He is an authority on boxing rules and was for many years the sporting editor on a Chicago daily.

Both the principals for to-night's battle have completed their training and Calcago dally.

Both the principals for to-night's battle have completed their training and are reported to be in tlp-top shape. What betting has been done was at even money, although naturally local admiration centres on Pearce. His opponent has a brilliant record, and owing to his retirement from the rling for a year during which period he has been instructor of the Providence, R. I., Y. M. C. A., and the swell Providence Athlete Club, it is possible that he is, a better man than a year ago, for he retired in order to give his hands a chance to get back to working order. Abbott looks a triffe fleshy, but he says that's als customary appearance, he prefering to qo in a fight prepared to lose four or five pounds than to step on the mat trained to the limit and then weaked. Every fighter has his own condition powders, however, and while "Absott's theories might not suit others, likevise unique are Oscar Gardner's and Lanky Bob's.

Pearce's friends are jubliant over his condition for he looks huskier than he bott's theories might not sult others, likewise unique are Oscar Gardner's and Lanky Bob's.

Pearce's friends are jubiliant over his condition, for he looks huskier than he has for many moons, is hard and strong, with lots of wind. He stated yesterday that he never felt better, and he certainly does look out of sight. He has trained faithfully and is very enger to win over Abbott, while the latter is just as anxious to beat Pearce, Defeat will mean much to either man, for it will prove a halt in his career.

The big bout will start at 9:30 o'clock, and should it go the limit, the crowd will be able to leave the club-house on the II o'clock motors at the latest, But the man wanting to get his money's worth will be at the ringside at 8:30 o'clock, when the six-round preliminary between George Carle, a local man, and George (Kid) Wanko, of Little Washinston, danshes across the boards. They are matched at 150 pounds, and a hot time is promised when they open up shop. A large Benwood delegation will be on hand to cheer for Carle, and the interest taken in the main attraction also extends to surrounding towns, Many Englishmen will be there to extend the slad hand to the former pride of Old Albion, Stanton Abbott, who came to this country as a proteye of the late Squire Abingdon.

is the Outlook for Sunday Rase Ball Here This Season-Negotiations for Grounds Near Fulton Are Progress ing -Base Ball News.

Quite promising is the outlook for the playing of Sunday base ball here this season. Since the club announced that the effort to play on Sunday would be made, the management has been in recelpt of many expressions of good will and support by the base ball public. On Saturday evening, Jimmy Travis headed a delegation of La Belle workmen who waited on Mr. Howell and asked has to make every effort to play on Sunday; that they and many other mill men who have no opportunity of seeing the National game on week-days are in line for Sunday balt. Yesterday aftertoon another delegation, this one made up of Acinaville men, cilled on the Wheeling manager and assured him that the over-the-river millmen would liberally support Sunday ball. Several professional and business men have made similar expressions during the past week.

On Saturday, President Howell and Manager Lytle had conferences with officials of the Wheeling & Elm Grove road, relative to the playing of Sunday ball. They inspected the most likely ste, the Thompson lot just beyond Fulton, which is only sixteen minutes from the city via the Elm Grove electric line. If Sunday ball is played the park will be located on this site. The railroad officials are holding out for the playing of both Sunday and week-day games at the park they propose to build for the club, but so far Mr. Howell insists upon the club playing at the Island park during the week. The Island park has an unequalled location, being casily accessible both from Wheeling and the over-the-river towns. The chance to play Sunday ball is a tempting bait, however, and it may influence the club to the point of deserting the Island park. Thermatter will be settled in two or three days.

Tom. Pastorious, formerly of the West West Wirginia University and Fairmont.

Tom Pastorious, formerly of the West Virginia University and Fairmont teams, is to be given a trial on the Wheeling team. A contract will be for-warded to him for signature this week.

Representatives of the Wheeling club Representatives of the Wheeling club will call on the ball cranks to-day, soliciting the sale of season books. As the team is a promising pennant probability under excellent management, which insures the playing out of the season in the fastest minor league in the country, the base ball public will doubtless encourage the club by readily taking up the one hundred books that have been put out.

Wheeling has four pitchers under re-serve, Dolan, Crabill, Wells and Poole, and a fifth will be added to the staff in a few days. He is an ex-National league star, whose face is not unfamiliar here, Fifteen minutes before Mr. Howell closed for the Springfield franchise, he offered Jack Glasscock a half interest. Jack declined, owing, he said, to the fact that he could not throw down Nichel.

Lytle has not yet received an answer to the letter he wrote the New Castle club, tendering his resignation as man-ager of the Quakers.

Negotiations are off with Nagle, twirler who was given a trial by Chica-go last year. It is not thought he is fast enough for the Inter-state clip.

Tom McNamara, the umpire, who was last seen in Wheeling as an Inter-state umpire in 1897, will wield the indicator in the Western Association this season.

Charley Mitchell has signed as member of the Inter-state staff of um-pires. He is a good one.

Nearly all the members of the Toledo Nearly all the members of the Toledo ball team have been signed and will re-port for duty on the first day of April. Contracts have been received from Gilks Smith, Griffin, Bishop, Arthur, Ewing, Myers, McDonough, Butler and Wiltse.

A new phase in the base ball fight bobs up serenely about every day, says the Springfield Republic-Times. Both the Springfield Republic-Times. Both sides are shrewdly constructing a network of evidence with which to catch the adversary and have been using public opinion as a teeter to play upon for the past few days. The latest development is a suit that is to be begun in the court of common pleas at no distant date in which Trustees Edwin S. Houck, Julius Stern and Charles Ridgely are to be the plaintiffs and the Springfield base ball company will be named as defendant. The ground for this suit is an old story having its opening chapter at the time the trustees took charge of the game last summer. When the franchise was forfeited it is stated the old club owes the players. When the franchise was forfeited it is stated the old club owes the players about $250; league dues $50; Pratt & Co. $21, and other bills amounting to tearly $400. These bills were paid by the trusties so they assert, in consideration of their receiving the grounds and club property. As is well known, the Mad River bank disposed of this property at shortiff's sale recently on an execution. sheriff's sale recently on an execution against the old company. Now the trustees maintain that in view of this pro-ceeding, they received nothing for their money and will sue to recover the same. The end is efar off.
